Email: s5roberts@verizon.net
Mondays 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Course Description: The goal of this course is to instill a passion for lifelong learning by challenging students to think critically through the lens of literature and composition. Students will engage in higher-order thinking through exposure to diverse genres, the study of literary elements, and the mastery of language usage and style. By deconstructing complex texts and practicing structured writing, students will develop the analytical tools necessary to express their ideas with clarity, precision, and voice.
